NEWS RELEASE

Organto Announces Key Leadership Changes

Vancouver, BC, Canada, April 19, 2017 – Organto Foods Inc. (TSX-V: OGO, OTC: OGOFF) (“Organto”), a leading vertically integrated provider of value-added branded organic vegetables, today announced a number of key leadership changes, adding seasoned food industry executives and depth to both its Board of Directors and Management team.

Effective May 1, 2017, Arnoud Maas has been appointed Chief Executive Officer, succeeding Peter Gianulis who will transition into the role of Executive Vice President, Corporate Development and continue as a Director of the Board. In addition, Steve Bromley has been appointed as Strategic Advisor to the CEO and Board of Directors, focused on strategic development, business execution, risk management and governance matters. The Board of Directors intends to nominate Mr. Maas and Mr. Bromley to Organto’s Board of Directors at the upcoming AGM planned for July or August 2017.

Peter Gianulis, Co-Founder, commented: “Over two years ago we embarked on building an integrated year-round value-added branded organic vegetable business to serve growing consumer demand for healthy and fresh food products. We have made great progress and as we enter the critical commercialization phase of our history, we’re thrilled to have Arnoud assume the CEO role, given his vast operational and commercial experience. I look forward to working with Arnoud and continuing to be a key part of the Organto team as we pursue our vision of being a leading vertically integrated organic value-added vegetable brand.”

Robert Giustra, Chairman, commented: “Mr. Maas and Mr. Bromley, both sophisticated food industry veterans, are vital additions to the Organto team. These appointments, which along with the recent addition of seasoned food operator Marcus Meurs as President & COO, are giant leaps forward in the furtherance of our aim of transitioning Organto’s executive leadership and Board, to exceptionally experienced and dynamic food related backgrounds.” Mr. Giustra further stated: “The vision of Co-Founder Peter Gianulis to create an integrated organic food company that can provide year-round produce supply on a global scale has been largely realized and we are now entering the next phase of our history, as we commercialize the efforts of the last few years. With key parts of the platform now in place, the recent management changes are timely by design, to shift the executive focus to execution of the business model, and sales growth in Europe and the United States.”

Mr. Maas has a long history in the consumer goods sector, particularly in the European and Asian food divisions of the former Sara Lee Corporation, which had operations in more than 40 countries and sold its product in over 180 nations worldwide. In the last three years, he has worked closely with the CEO and Board of Vroegop, a leading vertically integrated organic food company based in the Netherlands, where he assisted in strategically opening new distribution channels and market opportunities. Early in his career, Mr. Maas was a partner at Accenture, Kurt Salmon, as well as Capgemini Consulting, specializing in the consumer goods sector. He later held senior executive positions in retail, including as CEO of a leading chain of bookstores, and ultimately in the food sector, where he gained essential multi-jurisdictional management experience and extensive industry contacts. Mr. Maas holds a business degree from Sheffield University in the UK and a Masters in Economics from Keio University in Tokyo.

Mr. Bromley brings over 30 years of food industry experience to Organto, having served as CEO and a Director of SunOpta Inc. from 2007-2015. SunOpta is a global leader in non-GMO, organic and specialty foods with revenues in excess of $1 billion, substantial manufacturing and integrated supply operations, and a diverse global customer base. Mr. Bromley joined SunOpta in 2001 as CFO and served in that role until 2004 when he was appointed President and COO, through to his appointment as CEO. Prior to joining SunOpta, Mr. Bromley spent 15 years in the dairy and meat industries and four years in public accounting. Mr. Bromley is a Chartered Professional Accountant and Certified General Accountant.
