Important Information

Introductory Background and Most Recently Completed Financial Years

On November 30, 2015, Agricola Nuova Terra S.A. (“Agricola”), a privately owned business focused on the production and distribution of organic and non-genetically modified (“non-GMO”) vegetables, completed a reverse takeover (the “RTO”) of Columbus Exploration Corporation (“Columbus Exploration”). Columbus Exploration was incorporated on May 18, 2007 under the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada. Upon completion of the RTO, Columbus Exploration changed its name to Organto Foods Inc., and Agricola became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Organto Foods Inc. On March 21, 2016, Agricola changed its name to Organto Guatemala, Sociedad Anonima (“Organto Guatemala”).

The Company changed its name from Columbus Exploration Corporation to Organto Foods Inc. on December 18, 2015 to better reflect the Company's focus on sourcing, processing, marketing and distribution of integrated year-round organic fruit and vegetable products, along with the Company's commitment to sustainable and socially conscious business practices.

The Company acquired Fresh Organic Choice BV ("FORC"), a privately held Dutch corporation, in January 2021. FORC provides a wide range of fresh-cut organic herbs, marketed under the Fresh Organic Choice brand and in private label formats to customers throughout Europe. FORC employs a strategic asset-light business model, with sourcing from a diverse group of European and African sources.

The Company acquired Beeorganic BV ("BEE"), a privately held Dutch corporation, in November 2021. BEE is a year-round provider of organic bananas which are sold throughout Europe. BEE also employs a strategic asset-light business model, with sourcing from growers in the Caribbean.

Also in November 2021, the Company acquired the operating assets, including customer and supplier relationships and certain trademark applications, of ZMS, a privately held Dutch corporation controlled by Organto's co-CEO and another senior member of Organto's European management team. ZMS sells non-GMO and organic raspberries, snow peas, sugar snaps and fine green beans sourced from a number of African-based growing regions to a variety of European customers.

The Company acquired NFG New Fruit Group GmbH ("NFG"), a privately held German corporation, in January 2023. NFG's core focus is on organic and non-GMO banana, avocado and mango and has sales and marketing offices in Germany and Italy. NFG is a fully certified organic products supplier with a European sales focus and a strong existing retail customer base in Germany, Italy, France and Denmark. NFG has global supply relationships with established grower partners in the Caribbean, South America and Africa and a leadership team with extensive global organic fruit and vegetable experience.

The Company is listed on the TSX Venture exchange under the trading symbol "OGO", on the OTCQB in the United States under the symbol "OGOFF" and on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the trading symbol "OGF".

This Circular pertains to the Company's financial year ended December 31, 2022.

Proxies

Solicitation of Proxies

This solicitation of proxies is made by management of the Company.

This solicitation is being made primarily through mail, but proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers, employees, and other consultants of the Company. We have arranged for Intermediaries to forward the meeting material to Beneficial Shareholders who are on the records of those Intermediaries.

The Company will bear the costs of this solicitation.

Appointment of Proxyholder

The individuals named on the Proxy are officers and/or directors of the Company.

IF YOU ARE A SHAREHOLDER ENTITLED TO VOTE AT THE MEETING, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO APPOINT A PERSON OR COMPANY OTHER THAN EITHER OF THE PERSONS DESIGNATED IN THE PROXY, WHO NEED NOT BE A SHAREHOLDER, TO ACT FOR YOU AND ON YOUR BEHALF AT THE MEETING. YOU MAY DO SO EITHER BY INSERTING THE NAME OF THAT OTHER PERSON IN THE BLANK SPACE PROVIDED IN THE PROXY OR BY COMPLETING AND DELIVERING ANOTHER SUITABLE FORM OF PROXY.

Voting by Proxyholder

The persons named in the Proxy will vote or withhold from voting the Shares represented thereby in accordance with your instructions on any ballot that may be called for, and if you specify a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, your Shares will be voted accordingly.

Discretionary Authority

The Proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein with respect to:

- a) each matter or group of matters identified therein for which a choice is not specified, other than the election of directors or the appointment of an auditor;
- b) any amendment to or variation of any matter identified therein; and
- c) any other matter that properly comes before the Meeting.

In respect of a matter for which a choice is not specified in the Proxy, the persons named in the Proxy will vote the Shares represented by the Proxy for the approval of such matter.

Revocability of Proxies

In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a Registered Shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it by:

- a) executing a proxy bearing a later date or by executing a valid notice of revocation, either of the foregoing to be executed by the Registered Shareholder or the Registered Shareholder's authorized attorney in writing, or, if the Registered Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal by an officer or attorney duly authorized, and by delivering the proxy bearing a later date to Computershare or at the address of the Company at 1090 Hamilton Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6B 2R9, at any time up to and including the last business day that precedes the day of the Meeting or, if the Meeting is adjourned, the last business day that precedes any reconvening thereof, or to the Chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any reconvening thereof, or in any other manner provided by law; or
- b) personally attending the Meeting and voting the Registered Shareholder's Shares.

A revocation of a proxy will not affect a matter on which a vote is taken prior to the revocation.

Information Respecting Registered Shareholders

If you are a Registered Shareholder and wish to have your shares voted at the Meeting, you will be required to submit your vote by proxy. Due to the continued impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and issues related to the verification of shareholder identity via teleconference, voting by Shareholders by teleconference will not be permitted at the Meeting. Registered Shareholders may attend in person or may choose to submit a proxy using one of the following methods:

- a) complete, date and sign the enclosed Proxy and return it to the Company's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc. ("Computershare"), by fax within North America at 1-866-249-7775, outside North America at (416) 263-9524, or by mail to the 9th Floor, 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1 or by hand to 2nd Floor, 510 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6C 3B9; or
- b) use a touch-tone phone to transmit voting choices to a toll-free number. Registered shareholders must follow the instructions of the voice response system and refer to the enclosed proxy form for the toll-free number, the holder's account number and the voting control number; or
- c) log on to Computershare's internet website at www.investorvote.com, follow the instructions and refer to the enclosed proxy form for the holder's account number and the proxy access number.

A Registered Shareholder must ensure their proxy is submitted and received by Computershare at least 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the Meeting or the adjournment thereof. Please see the form of proxy for additional information respecting specific dates.

Information Respecting Beneficial Shareholders

The following information is of significant importance to shareholders who do not hold Shares in their own name.

Beneficial Shareholders should note the only proxies that can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting are those deposited by registered shareholders (those whose names appear on the records of the Company as the registered holders of Shares) or as set out below.

If Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a shareholder by a broker, then in almost all cases those Shares will not be registered in the shareholder's name on the records of the Company. Such Shares will more likely be registered under the names of intermediaries. In Canada the vast majority of such Shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited, which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms), and in the United States, under the name of Cede & Co. as nominee for The Depository Trust Company (which acts as depository for many U.S. brokerage firms and custodian banks).

Intermediaries are required to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of meetings of shareholders. Every Intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients.

There are two kinds of Beneficial Shareholders: OBOs, who object to their name being disclosed to the issuer of securities they own; and NOBOs, who do not object to the issuer of the securities they own knowing who they are.

NOBOs can expect to receive a scannable VIF from Broadridge. The VIF is to be completed and returned to Broadridge as set out in the instructions provided on the VIF. Broadridge will tabulate the results of the VIFs received from NOBOs and will provide appropriate instructions at the Meeting with respect to the shares represented by the VIFs they receive. Please return your VIF as specified in the request for voting instructions that was sent to you.

The security holder material is being sent to both registered and non-registered owners of the securities of the Company. If you are a non-registered owner, and the Company or its agent sent these materials directly to you, your name, address and information about your holdings of securities, were obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the Intermediary holding securities on your behalf.

By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Company (and not the Intermediary holding securities on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions.

Beneficial Shareholders who are OBOs should follow their Intermediary's instructions carefully to ensure their Shares are voted at the Meeting. The Company's management does not intend to pay for intermediaries to forward to OBOs the proxy-related materials or the VIF. OBOs will not receive such materials unless the OBO's Intermediary assumes the cost of delivery.

The form of proxy supplied to you by your broker will be similar to the Proxy provided to Registered Shareholders. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the Intermediary on how to vote your Common Shares on your behalf. Most brokers delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. ("Broadridge") in Canada and in the United States. Broadridge mails a VIF in lieu of a proxy provided by the Company. The VIF will name the same persons as the Company's Proxy to represent your Shares at the Meeting. You have the right to appoint a person (who need not be a Beneficial Shareholder of the Company), other than any of the persons designated in the VIF, to represent your Shares at the Meeting and that person may be you. To exercise this right, insert the name of your desired representative (which may be you) in the blank space provided in the VIF. The completed VIF must then be returned to Broadridge in accordance with Broadridge's instructions. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions respecting voting of the Shares to be represented at the Meeting and the appointment of any shareholder's representative.

If you receive a VIF from Broadridge, the VIF must be completed and returned to Broadridge, in accordance with its instructions, well in advance of the Meeting in order to have your Shares voted, or to have an alternate representative duly appointed to attend the Meeting and vote your Shares at the Meeting.

Notice to Shareholders in the United States

The solicitation of proxies involves securities of an issuer located in Canada and is being carried out in accordance with the corporate laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada and securities laws of the provinces of Canada. The proxy solicitation rules under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, are not applicable to the Company or this solicitation, and this solicitation has been prepared in accordance with the disclosure requirements of the securities laws of the provinces of Canada. Shareholders should be aware that disclosure requirements under the securities laws of the provinces of Canada differ from the disclosure requirements under United States securities laws.

The enforcement by shareholders of civil liabilities under United States federal securities laws may be affected adversely by the fact that the Company is incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia), as amended, certain of its directors and its executive officers are residents of Canada and a substantial portion of its assets and the assets of such persons are located outside the United States. Shareholders may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of United States federal securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its officers and directors to subject themselves to a judgment by a United States court.

Interest of Certain Persons or Companies in Matters to be Acted Upon

No person or company who:

- a) has been a director or executive officer of the Company at any time since the beginning of the Company's last financial year;
- b) is a proposed nominee for election as a director of the Company; or
- c) is an associate or affiliate of any of the persons or companies set out above;

Voting Securities and Principal Holders of Voting Securities

Record Date

The Board of the Company has fixed May 19, 2023 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determination of persons entitled to vote at the Meeting. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date who either attend the Meeting personally or complete, sign and deliver a proxy in the manner and subject to the provisions described above will be entitled to vote or to have their Shares voted at the Meeting.

Securities Outstanding

As of the date of this Circular, there were 285,483,826 Shares without par value issued and outstanding, each carrying the right to one vote.

10% Shareholders

To the knowledge of the Company's directors and executive officers, there are no persons or companies who beneficially owned, controlled, or directed, directly or indirectly, Shares carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to all outstanding Shares of the Company as of the Record Date.

Votes Necessary to Pass Resolutions

A simple majority of affirmative votes cast at the Meeting is required to pass the proposals described herein. If there are more nominees for election as directors or for appointment as the Company's auditor than there are vacancies to fill, those nominees receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected or appointed, as the case may be, until all such vacancies have been filled. If the number of nominees for election or appointment as a director or as auditor is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, all such nominees will be declared elected or appointed by acclamation.

Compensation Governance

Policies and Practices

Due to its size, the Board has not established a Compensation Committee. Instead, the full Board is tasked with (a) reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation and evaluating the CEO's performance in light of those corporate goals and objectives; (b) discussing and establishing non-CEO officer and director compensation, incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans, and any amendments to such plans from time-to-time, as determined by the Board or on the advice of legal counsel or other advisors; and (c) reviewing executive compensation disclosure before the Company publicly discloses this information. The Board is of the belief that their experience with public companies provides them with the skills necessary to evaluate appropriate compensation levels.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Objectives and Rewards of the Compensation Program

The Board determines executive management compensation based on advice and discussion provided by the directors, without reference to formal market data. The Board relies on the experience of its members as officers and directors of the Company in determining the appropriateness of its compensation programs.

The general objectives of the Company's compensation programs are to:

- a) compensate management in a manner that encourages and rewards a high level of performance with a view to increasing shareholder value;
- b) align management's interests with the interests of shareholders;
- c) provide a compensation package that is commensurate with other start-ups in the natural and organic foods industry to attract and retain talent;
- d) to ensure that the total compensation package is designed in a manner that takes into account the constraints under which the Company operates, in particular that the Company is a start-up natural and organic foods business without a history of earnings; and
- e) to ensure that total compensation paid to all NEOs is fair and reasonable.

Elements of Compensation

Under normal operating circumstances, compensation includes both a fixed component (base salary or contract amount) and variable component (bonuses, share options).

Base salary or contract amounts are used to provide the Named Executive Officer with an agreed-upon annual compensation with the expectation that each Named Executive Officer will perform his or her responsibilities to the best of his or her ability and in the best interests of the Company.

The Company also may use incentive bonus programs as an element of variable compensation for Named Executive Officers. Bonuses, if utilized, are based on pre-determined metrics established at the beginning of an agreed upon performance period, and paid after the conclusion of the performance period. There were no incentive bonuses paid for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. As the Company grows the use of incentive bonus programs is expected to increase.

Incentive share options and restricted share units are also a component of Named Executive Officer compensation. Share options are generally awarded to directors, officers, consultants and employees at the commencement of service to the Company, and periodically thereafter. The terms and conditions of the Company's share option grants and restricted share units, including vesting provisions and exercise prices, are governed by the terms of the Company's Share Option Plan and Restricted Share Unit Plan, as previously disclosed.

Determination of Amounts of Each Element

The Board determines the amount of each element of compensation payable to a Named Executive Officer through reference to the experience of the Named Executive Officer, individual performance, Company performance and general market conditions, with the intention of meeting the objectives set out above.

While the Company considers the value of each element in determining the values of the other elements of compensation payable, the Company sets each element in reference to the compensation provided to the Company's other officers, employees, and consultants and also to general market standards.

Implications of Risks Associated with Compensation Program

The Company is an early-stage natural and organic foods business in the early phases of commercialization. Due to the straightforward nature of compensation programs at this point, the Board does not feel there are material risks associated the Company's compensation policies and practices at this time.

NEO or Director's Ability to Purchase Financial Instruments

The Company does not place restrictions on a NEO or director's ability to purchase securities or financial instruments, beyond the imposition of blackout periods where applicable and also an expectation that all personnel will strictly abide by insider trading laws. The Company's Procedures and Guidelines Governing Insider Trading and Tipping are a key component of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. Notwithstanding this fact, financial instruments such as prepaid variable forward contracts, equity swaps, collars, or units of exchange funds that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of equity securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by the NEO or director, are not generally available in connection with the Company.

Director Compensation

The Company aims to compensate directors via a combination of annual cash fees and option-based awards, with the intention of aligning the interests of the directors with the interests of the Company's shareholders. Directors who are members of senior management of the Company are not compensated for their services as a director. As the Company's operations expand, annual compensation for directors will be continually assessed in order to position the Company to attract and/or retain Board members with skills and experience aligned with the Company's business needs.

The directors waived their annual cash fees beginning January 1, 2018 until such time as the Company's operations can support such payments when it is expected that directors will again receive direct cash compensation.

The directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred on behalf of the Company. From time to time, directors may be retained to provide specific services to the Company and will be compensated on a normal commercial basis for such services.

Other than as set out below, there are no other arrangements to compensate directors by the Company or its subsidiaries during the most recently completed financial year for their services in their capacity as directors or consultants.

Share-based and Option-based Awards

Objectives and Rewards of the Compensation Program

The Company established its Share Option Plan to provide incentives to qualified parties to increase their interest in the Company and thereby encourage their continuing association with the Company.

The directors have the responsibility to administer the compensation policies related to the executive officers, including option-based awards. In determining the number of options to be granted to the Company's executive officers, directors, employee or non-employee service providers, the directors take into account the number of options, if any, previously granted to each party, the exercise price of any such outstanding options, individual performance, services provided and general market conditions.

The number of options granted is generally commensurate to the level of base compensation for each level of responsibility. In addition to determining the number of options to be granted, the Board also make the following determinations:

- a) parties who are entitled to participate in the Company's share option plan;
- b) the exercise price for each share option granted, subject to the policies of any applicable regulatory authority or stock exchange;
- c) the date on which each option is granted;
- d) the vesting period, if any, for each share option;
- e) other material terms and conditions of each share option grant; and
- f) any amendment to a share option grant.

The Board makes these determinations subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. The Board typically reviews and approves grants of share options periodically during a financial year.

Material Terms of the Share Option Plan

The following is a summary of the material terms of the Share Option Plan:

- a) the Board may from time to time, in its discretion, and in accordance with TSX-V policy grant options;
- b) all options granted under the Plan are non-assignable and non-transferable for a period of up to five (5) years;
- c) options may be granted subject to certain 'vesting' requirements, such as remaining with the Company for a period of time after the grant;
- d) if an optionee who is a senior officer (including vice presidents) or a director of the Company, and who has served the Company for a period of at least two years, holds vested options at the date such optionee ceases to be employed by the Company, or ceases to act as a Director or officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, any such vested options held by such optionee will expire the earlier of the date of expiration of the term of the vested option, or twelve (12) months after the date such optionee ceases to be a senior officer or director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, unless such optionee was dismissed for cause;
- e) if an optionee ceases to be employed by the Company (other than as a result of termination with cause) or ceases to act as a Director or officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, any option held by such optionee may be exercised within 90 days (or such other time, not to exceed one year, as shall be determined by the Board as at the date of grant or as agreed to by the Board and the optionee at any time prior to expiry of the option), following termination of the relationship between the optionee and the Company, except if the cessation was by reason of death, in which case the option may be exercised within a maximum period of one year after such death, subject to the expiry date of such option;
- f) the minimum exercise price of an option granted under the Plan must not be less than the Discounted Market Price (as defined in TSX-V policy);
- g) options granted to a consultant cannot exceed 2% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company in any 12-month period;
- h) no optionee may be granted an option or options to purchase more than 5% of the outstanding listed shares of the Company in any 12-month period;
- i) all outstanding but unvested options will vest immediately prior to completion of a successful take over-bid (as defined in applicable securities legislation) so as to allow the holders to tender the underlying Shares to such bid; and
- j) if an option is set to expire during a period in which trading in securities of the Company by the option holder is restricted by a black-out, or within 9 business days of the expiry of a black out, the expiry date of the option will be extended to 10 business days after the trading restrictions are lifted.

With respect to amendment of the Plan, none of the following actions will become effective without first obtaining disinterested shareholder approval:

- a) Aggregate number of Shares being issuable to insiders under the Plan, when combined with all of the Company's other share compensation arrangements, exceeding 10% of the Company's issued Shares;
- b) Aggregate number of Shares being issuable to insiders under the Plan, when combined with all of the Company's other share compensation arrangements, exceeding 10% of the Company's issued Shares in any 12-month period;

- d) A reduction in the exercise price of an option to an insider or an extension of the term of an option granted under the Plan benefitting an insider.

Subject to necessary TSX-V approval, the Board may in its discretion, and for avoidance of doubt, without further shareholder approval, amend or modify the Plan or any option granted as follows:

- a) it may make amendments which are of a typographical, grammatical or clerical nature;
- b) it may change the vesting provisions of an option granted under the Plan, subject to TSX-V approval;
- c) it may change the termination provision of an option granted under the Plan which does not entail an extension beyond the original expiry date of such option;
- d) it may make amendments necessary as a result of changes in securities laws applicable to the Company;
- e) if the Company becomes listed or quoted on a stock exchange or stock market senior to the TSX-V, it may make such amendments as may be required by the policies of such senior stock exchange or stock market; and
- f) it may make such amendments as reduce, and do not increase, the benefits of the Plan to service providers.

Under TSX-V policy, continuation of the Plan requires shareholder approval by ordinary resolution annually. A copy of the Plan, as amended, will be available for inspection at the Meeting.
